H. B. VINCENT & BRO. are the local agents here for the sale of the Grover & Baker sewing machines.

T. D. CREWELL is renovating things about his Merchant Tailoring Establishment—getting ready for the Fall trade.

The Special Term of the Court of Common Pleas, for Morgan County, convenes on Tuesday morning, the 18th.

A shock of wheat was struck and consumed by lightning in James A. McConnell's wheat field, east of town, during the storm on Monday last.

GENTLEMEN from Windsor and Center townships, this county, report that the Prohibition cause is fast gaining ground in both those localities.

THE MARKET.—No change in the home market since last issue.

Cattle were quoted in Cincinnati last Monday, at $3 to $5 per hundred; Hogs, at from $4.15 to $4.50; Sheep, at from $3 to $3.50.

A Grandson of Daniel Boone, the Kentucky Indian hunter and pioneer, is now the widow of ex-Governor Rogers, and resides in Napa County, California, on the old homestead where the family settled nearly twenty-five years ago.

The Herald hoists its platform again, or does so last week. Why doesn't it tear down the names of Mueller, Williams and Hoome from the Prohibition ticket. Whisky and lager beer won't mix with temperance no more than oil with water.

THOMSON A. ROBINSON, of Bloom township, died on Monday last, at his residence. He had been laid on Wesley Chapel on Wednesday. He had been a member of the Baptist Church for thirty-nine years, and was about sixty years of age. He died of consumption.

A TEST of the Babcock Fire Extinguisher was made in the Public Square of this Village on last Saturday evening. The Extinguisher proved satisfactory, and the proprietors are that our town council will purchase a half dozen of them, at $60 apiece, for the use of the Corporation.

THE Pomeroy Crescent, of last week, says the jail statistics of Meigs County, for the year ending June 30th, 1871, foot up as follows:—Whole number of prisoners for the year, 141—males, 114; females, 27; boys, 3; girls, 1; insane, 8. Of the above number sixty-two were committed directly for drunkenness.

We notice a new paper, the Daily Dispatch, is now issued in Columbus, Ohio. Among its conductors and editors, are several gentlemen who were recently engaged on the Columbus Crisis. The Dispatch is an evening paper, and ably conducted, and is independent in politics. It is just such a paper as has long been needed at the State Capital.

We should have mentioned ere this, that the Columbus Crisis has been merged in the Ohio Statesman, and that the Statesman, under present management is one of the most reliable Democratic papers in the West. Those of our citizens, who think they cannot get along without a Democratic state organ in their house, cannot do better than subscribe for the Statesman. Address, Ohio Statesman, Columbus, Ohio.

JOHN OLIVER, of Bristol township, is a lucky man. His wife presented him with a pair of twins—both boys—a week or so ago, making five boys she has presented him with within the past four years, and a half, of whom are living. Four pair of twins have been born on Oliver's farm within the past ten years, indicating an unusually healthy stock. Oliver has our thanks for a basket of very fine eating apples he brought us last week. We suppose he thought he "owed" the apples.

JACKSON MILLER, son of Samuel Miller, of Madison township, attempted to water a pair of horses of his father's in the river just above the Malta wharf on last Saturday, and the lines becoming entangled in some way, the horses became unmanageable while in the water, resulting in their being drowned. Mr. Miller barely escaped drowning himself. Fortunately for his mother, who had been in the wagon with him, she took the precaution to get out of it just before her son started to water the horses. The horses were worth about $300. This makes four horses that have been drowned at the place above named, and at about the same manner, in the past four or five years.

The daily papers, of the past week, are full of casualties, suicides, and shooting affrays. Between New York City and Newark, N. J., on the Newark Railroad, on the 8th, five persons were killed, and fifteen wounded, and hundreds of thousands of dollars were lost in damages, by a brakeman turning a train of cars in the wrong direction, causing a collision. At Dayton, O., on Sunday last, a terrible tornado demolished a German Lutheran Church, in which Sunday School was being held at the time. Five persons were killed, and many others injured, and a large number of buildings, by means of all which eight persons were killed and thirty wounded. Murders and suicides—three of the latter in Cincinnati alone—have been too numerous to enumerate, and nine out of ten of them have been caused by alcohol.

The "True Democrat."

The above is to be the title of a Democratic paper to be started here shortly by F. A. Davis, the Liberator's effort to supply the wants of the Democracy having proved a failure.

It is to be called the "True Democrat" in order to place it before the people in an unmistakable light; and, as near as the adoption of a name can secure that result, it is successful. But in these days of variety of opinion, and of independence of thought and action, the question arises, what is it to be a true Democrat? what principles must a paper hold in order to entitle it to the name of "True Democrat" and the result is that what seemed plain and easy of comprehension on the face of it, filled with doubt and perplexity on investigation, and the minds of men are mistified in cogitating upon the matter. Consequently, in order to reach the public mind from the great pressure bearing upon it because of the uncertainty of the principles that the editor, or the editors, as the case may be, of the new paper, will launch forth as "truly Democratic," we ask them to define their position on the following questions in the first issue:

1st. Are they in favor of a White Man's Government? Were all, or any, of the existing laws making this other than a White Man's Government strictly, constitutionally enacted? If the laws extending the rights of citizenship to the African race were unconstitutional, and are they now null and void, except as they are being enforced by the parties who enacted them? Is it truly Democratic, now-a-days, to hold that the African is a man and brother? or is it truly Democratic to hold them to be incapable of self-government, fit only to be slaves of the Caucasian race? Is it truly Democratic to believe that we will become a nation of hybrids in consequence of making the African a citizen, or is it not?

2nd. Was the act making paper money a legal tender constitutional, or was it not? Is it Democratic to be in favor of a return to specie payment, or is it Democratic to believe that we will be flooded by the country with greenbacks?

3rd. Is it Democratic to hold that there is no right of secession, or is it not?

4th. Is it Democratic to be in favor of Protection, or Free Trade, or a limited Protection?

5th. Is it Democratic to hold the influx of the "Heathen Chinese," or is it not?

6th. Is it Democratic to endorse the "New Departure"? If so, what does the endorsement mean? Does it mean that the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments are endorsed by the truly Democratic, never to be disturbed by them, but always to receive their support? or does it mean that the truly Democratic merely acquiesce in their being recognized as portions of the law of the country for the time; that until the Democrats get into power and are able to sweep them from the statute books?

7th. Is it truly Democratic to stand by any well defined principles that are to affect the people at large for weal or woe, if carried out; or is it truly Democratic to scramble only for place, or position, and the emoluments thereof?

8th. Is it truly Democratic to allow men to murder, rob and steal; to cause others to do the same; to fill our almshouses with beggars, our jails and penitentiaries with convicts, our insane asylums with the demented; to fill our land with widows and orphans, ragged and starving; to leave our people a crippled honest industry—all thro' the liquor traffic? Is this truly Democratic?

We make the above inquiries with a view to having the "True Democrat" answer them when it makes its appearance. When a man, or paper, assumes to be in possession of the real, true, pure article, and wants the public to endorse it, there should be no hesitation in exposing it to the public gaze. So, we look forward to the first issue of the "True Democrat," that is to be, with considerable interest.

County Lodge Meeting of Good Templars.

The County Lodge of Good Templars will hold its next regular meeting at the Malta Good Templars Lodge, on Friday, the 23rd of July, 1871, at 2 o'clock, p. m. In the evening of the same day, and at the same place, there will be a public meeting, to which all are invited, and which will be addressed by Revs. C. W. Courtwright, T. J. Wakefield, and F. J. Cather.

Morgan Co. Common Pleas Court.

List of Petit Jurors for the Special Term, commencing July 18, 1871, at 8 o'clock, a. m.:
Union Tp. Jacob Holt, Penn.
David Henry, Windsor.
Charles Patterson, Penn.
Joseph Penrose, Penn.
Henry Blackmore, Windsor.
C. C. Wendell, Marion.
T. J. Williams, Morgan.
D. S. Wadsworth, Manchester.
George Buchanan, Meigsville.
Daniel Williams, Union.

The Prohibitionists of Franklin County held a rousing meeting in Columbus a few evenings since. The speaking was from the west-front of the State House, and W. Stuchcombe, Prohibition candidate for Attorney General, was the principal speaker. Franklin County, all know, is largely Democratic, and the Democrats complain that the Prohibitionists are working into the hands of the Republicans; all corresponding with the cry of the Republicans in this County, where the Republicans are in the majority, that "you are breaking up the Republican party." So it goes, the country over, and we hope we will succeed in breaking up both of the old parties.

History of the War in Europe.

The National Publishing Co., of Cincinnati, has just issued a very valuable history of the late war between Germany and France, from the pen of one of our most popular writers, Mr. James D. McCabe, Jr.

In a large volume of 800 octavo pages, the author tells a wonderful story—all the stranger because of its truth. He tells of battles which have shaken Europe to its centre, and the consequences of which, even we of the Western world must feel; of patriotism, heroism, military skill and statesmanship, never surpassed in history. The author writes with the weight and force of truth, and the great merits of his book are its reliability and strict impartiality.

The book is complete in every particular. It describes the causes of the war, and the events which preceded it; the opening campaign, and the first reverses of the French; the effect of these reverses on the French people; the frantic effort to rescue the beaten army, and the terrible disaster of Sedan; the capture of the Emperor Napoleon, and an entire army; the Revolution in Paris, the rise and the formation of the Republic; the flight of the Empress from Paris, the siege and surrender of Strasbourg and the frontier fortresses of France; the triumphal advance of the German armies to Paris; the efforts of Bismarck to escape from Metz, and the final surrender of his army; the investment and siege of Paris; the detailed history of the great siege; plans, sorties, battles, successes and failures; the course of events in the beleaguered city, given in the form of a full diary of the events of the siege; the campaigns on the Loire, and in other portions of France. The peace negotiations, the surrender of Paris and the treaty; the naval history of the war, the diplomatic history on both the German and French sides; the history of the formation of the great German empire, the proclaiming of King William Emperor, and the realization of German unity; the events of the civil war and the second siege of Paris, its terrible scenes of bloodshed and vandalism, with a minutely graphic and brilliant, which leaves nothing to be desired. No intelligent person can afford to be unacquainted with these events, which have left so deep an impression on the world's history, and few will fail to read this splendid work, or, having read it, to endorse it as the Standard American History of the War.

In this age of sensational literature, we cannot too highly commend this brilliant and thoughtful narrative to our readers. The book is handsomely bound, and illustrated with 150 maps, portraits and battle scenes, and views of the principal localities connected with the war. No expense has been spared by the publishers to make it worthy of the support of the public and we predict for it an immense sale, especially as its low price brings it within the reach of all. It is published in both English and German, sold by subscription only, and the publishers want agents in every country.

By referring to the Grover & Baker advertisement in this paper, it will be seen that Alex. Finley is now the agent for the sale of these machines in Washington, Muskingum and Vinton counties, as well as in the counties of Morgan, Athens and Hocking. Finley is pushing this business with remarkable energy, and will soon, if he has not already, have his sub-agents traveling through every portion of these six counties. The Grover & Baker is a ready sale wherever it is known.
